PRIVILEGES OF SUBSCRIBERS.

FIRST CLASS.

Contributors of 100 guineas in one payment, or 10 guineas annually, have the privilege of being present at, and of introducing three persons to, all the concerts, orchestral and choral practices, lectures, and distributions of prizes, which take place in connection with the Institution.

SECOND CLASS.

Contributors of 50 guineas in one payment, or 5 guineas annually, have the privilege of being present, and of introducing two persons on the occasions above-mentioned.

THIRD CLASS.

Contributors of 25 guineas in one payment, or 3 guineas annually, have the privilege of being present, and of introducing one person on the occasions above-mentioned.

FOURTH CLASS.

Contributors of 12 guineas in one payment, or 1 guinea annually, have the privilege of being present on the occasions above-mentioned.

All classes of subscribers have the privilege of recommending students to the Institution, and are eligible for directors.

REGULATIONS.

I.—All orders whatever for the government and regulation of the Academy emanate from the Committee of Management, whose decisions are delivered, through their Chairman, to the different officers of the establishment.

II.—All branches of Music are taught in the Academy; and Students may choose any one of these for their principal study. Should the branch for which a male Student enters be Composition, Organ, Pianoforte, or Harp, he may be required to learn, in addition, any orchestral instrument the Committee may choose for him.

All Students are required to learn Harmony and Pianoforte; and all are required to attend the Sight-Singing Class; and, when competent, to take part in the Orchestral and Choral practices, and in all public performances of the Academy.

Should the branch for which a Student enters be Singing, he or she is required to attend the Elocution Class.

III.—The year is divided into three Terms:—The Lent Term of twelve-and-a-half weeks, and the Easter and Michaelmas Terms of thirteen weeks each; the Michaelmas Term commences on the fourth Monday in September, 1884, the Lent Term on the third Monday in January, and the Easter Term on the fourth Monday in April. There are vacations of four weeks at Christmas, of one and a half weeks at Easter, and of eight weeks at the close of the Easter term.

The Entrance Fee is Five Guineas. The Annual Fee for the entire course of Study is Thirty Guineas, or Ten Guineas per Term.

The Course of Instruction includes Two Weekly Lessons in a Principal Study, one in Harmony, one in a Second Study when deemed desirable, one in Elocution for Singers, and the advantages of the Sight Singing Class, the Violin Quartet and the Instrumental Chamber Music Classes, and the Orchestral and Choral Practices.

An extra fee of Three Guineas a Term for One Lesson a Week, or Five Guineas a Term for Two Lessons a Week, is paid by Students who pursue an additional principal Study.

All payments are made in advance.

Notice must be given of the withdrawal of a Student.

IV.—The Operatic Class for the study of the lyrical drama is open to composers, singers, and accompanists. Students already accepted in the Academy are admitted to this class on payment of an additional fee of Two Guineas a Term each.

V.—The classes for the English, Italian, French, and German languages, may be attended by the Students on payment of an additional fee of One Guinea a term each, for any class.

Lectures on Acoustics, will be delivered in the Michaelmas and Lent Terms, for which there is no extra fee, but a small fee is paid for attending the Class in this subject.

VI.—Students are admitted at the commencement of each Term and Half-Term. Candidates for admission must attend for examination, bringing music they can perform, at Eleven o'Clock on the Saturday before each Term or Half-Term, with a recommendation from a Subscriber, a Member, an Associate, or an Honorary Member.

The fee for examination is One Guinea, which is returned on the admission of the candidate.

Candidates residing at a distance from London may obtain information and advice respecting the Academy, from any of the Local Representatives (see list pages 4 and 5).

VII.—The Students are required to pay implicit obedience to all persons placed in authority over them, and to attend punctually at the hours appointed for their instruction, and at all Orchestral and Choral Practices and Rehearsals, if they be members of the band or choir, and at all Public Performances.

VIII.—As a mark of particular distinction, advanced Students are appointed Sub-Professors, and required to give instruction in the Academy, under the supervision of their own Professors. This appointment is for a period not exceeding three years, and is relinquished if the pupil leave the Academy before the expiration of the period.

IX.—No Student is allowed to undertake any public engagement, without the sanction of the Principal.

X.—No Student is allowed to publish any composition without the sanction of the Principal; and a copy of all compositions published with his sanction must be presented to the Library of the Academy.

XI.—Students have the privilege of practising on the Organ if they pay the cost of blowing, and on the Pedallier, of Messrs. Pleyel and Co., without charge.

XII.—Any infringement or violation of the Regulations, or any discreditable or improper conduct, will subject the Student, at the discretion of the Committee, to dismissal from the Institution.

XIII.—On leaving the Academy, or during the Term next after leaving, Students may undergo an examination. If the examination prove satisfactory, they will receive a Certificate; and, in special cases, the additional distinction of being made an Associate of the Institution. Applications on this subject cannot be received later than the next Term after a pupil leaves the Institution.

XIV.—Students who distinguish themselves in the Musical profession after quitting the Institution, may be, by the Committee of Management, created Members of the Royal Academy of Music.

The above Regulations are appointed by the Committee of Management, acting under the Charter given by his late most Gracious Majesty King George IV.

Signed,

G. A. MACFARREN.

Chairman of the Committee of Management.
